

Dear Jim,

2/20/81

My wife has come up with an idea that may make it possible for me to get there.

She doesn't drive, but her sister, who is a good driver, also likes to visit Longwood Gardens. So, when we see her sister again, we'll ask if she would like to and if she can get leave for the trip.

I'll let you know.

Sorry to hear about Huddy Erisman. I remember him as a rather fine person.

Reminds me about my wife's joke about my seeing Ed McAuley, as we did at the many chicken festivals we attended. (We were both national champs, etc.) I'd be asking Ed about someone and he'd say, Oh, he died. It seemed that all the people we both knew died weekly. And I hear Ed has. But every time I'd see Ed coming my wife would say now you'll know who died and tragically, it was too true.

Your mentioning that Huddy needs a wheelchair reminds me that I can't stand still at all and should have my legs up as much as possible. I think I'll see if I can find a collapsible wheelchair I can afford I'll bring it along. I can walk about twice the length of a football field now without stopping but that's about it.

Chief Justice Warren's ill-advised and unfortunate comment has been much misunderstood. None of their Reports is withheld but some of the records other agencies provided them are. In many cases it is merely $\frac{1}{2}$ to protect the privacy of the uninvolved. Much more important is the records of these other agencies, particularly the FBI and CIA. I have both in court and I'm gradually getting many but much remains withheld and getting it is a hard fight. However, I don't think there will be any smoking gun because, hard as it is for the average person to believe, the crime itself was never really investigated. Oswald was assumed to be a lone assassin and there was no interest in ^{anything} ~~anything~~ that didn't make this seem to be credible.

I hope it can work out because I'd like very much to be there and, of course, I also want to see my mother.

Best wishes,
